We'd like to take a moment to introduce our wine list. This selection brings together producers we know and love from across Australia, alongside some of the world's most revered names.

Designed to complement the beautiful views and venue, there's something here for every occasion, and for everyone.

If you're unsure where to begin, please don't hesitate to ask - we're always happy to guide you.

RARE & UNIQUE

WINTER 2026

Poured by the glass.
Opened without compromise.

Our Coravin selection brings together a rotating list of exceptional wines, preserved at their best and rarely offered this way.

Chosen for their quality, rarity, and character – made to be explored one glass at a time.

If something catches your eye, or you'd like a recommendation, just let us know.

Domaine de la Jolive Sancerre 2023 • Loire Valley, France 28

Domaine de la Jolive Sancerre comes from a small family-run Loire Valley estate, where meticulous vineyard management and sustainable practices shape the fruit. Traditional winemaking with gentle pressing and temperature-controlled fermentation preserves crisp citrus, flinty minerality, and vibrant acidity, delivering classic Sauvignon Blanc elegance with freshness, balance, and a clean, expressive finish. Drink this with freshly shucked oysters.

Loosen Barry 'Slate Hill' Riesling 2023 • Clare Valley, South Australia 25

Loosen Barry Slate Hill Riesling 2023 is a collaboration between the Barry family of Clare Valley and Ernst Loosen of Germany, blending Australian terroir with Mosel-inspired winemaking. Wild fermentation and extended lees ageing build texture, while vibrant citrus, stone fruit, and flinty minerality deliver a fresh, balanced, and expressive finish.

Domaine Thierry Mothe Chablis AC 2023 • Burgundy, France 28

Domaine Thierry Mothe Chablis AC comes from a multi-generational family estate in northern Burgundy, focused exclusively on Chardonnay and expressing classic Kimmeridgian limestone terroir. Sustainable vineyard practices and stainless steel fermentation with lees ageing preserve purity, delivering crisp citrus, green apple, and flinty minerality with vibrant acidity and a clean, elegant finish.

Dalrymple Pinot Noir 2024 • Pipers River, Tasmania 23

Dalrymple are a pioneering Tasmanian estate established in 1987, focused on cool-climate, site-driven wines. Fruit for this much-loved Pinot Noir is sourced from multiple vineyard sites, fermented in small batches, and matured with French oak to build complexity. The result shows vibrant cherry, plum, and spice, with fine tannins, bright acidity, and an elegant, savoury finish.

Penfolds St Henri Shiraz 2019 • multi-regional, South Australia 40

An icon of the Penfolds line-up, St Henri is a much-loved multi-regional Shiraz, where the very best parcels of fruit are fermented & matured in large format old French oak. Expect waves of red & black fruit, old leather & tobacco, while the palate is rich, long, and just the wine for dry aged steak & slow braised meats.

Kendall-Jackson Vintner's Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 2022 • Sonoma County, California 27

Kendall-Jackson Vintner's Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon is produced by a family-founded California estate established in 1982, sourcing fruit from cool coastal vineyards across Sonoma and Mendocino. Artisan winemaking, including extended maceration and oak ageing, builds texture and softens tannins, while ripe black cherry, cassis, vanilla, and mocha deliver a smooth, balanced, and approachable finish.

CELLAR LIST

WINTER 2026

A considered collection of wines, available by the glass and bottle.

From familiar favourites to more expressive finds.

Sydney looks better with a glass in hand.

Pinot Noir 2016 350

Tolpuddle has become one of the defining names in Tasmanian wine, and one of the most collectable Pinot Noirs produced in the Southern Hemisphere. The vineyard, tucked into the Coal River Valley, is tended by a remarkable team: Michael Hill Smith MW and Martin Shaw at the helm, with Adam Wadewitz in the winery and viticulturist Ray Guerin shaping the vines. The 2024 is another modern Australian classic that lives up to the reputations of the stunning 2020 & the debut 2016.
